Partnerships & Influencers

HelloFresh

- Why: HelloFresh's meal kits focus on balanced, health-conscious recipes and simplify meal prep, which aligns with the Health-Focused Home Chef's goal of preparing nutritious meals quickly. A partnership could position the Meater as an essential tool for cooking meats to perfection, enhancing the quality and ease of meal prep.
- How: Bundle the Meater thermometer with meal kits that include meats, or offer exclusive discounts on HelloFresh subscriptions for Meater customers.

Influencers

- Industry: Health and Wellness, Family Cooking, and Meal Prep
- Platforms: Instagram and YouTube are the primary platforms, with Pinterest also popular for recipe inspiration.
- Follower Range: Mid-tier influencers, typically between 50,000 - 500,000 followers.
- Content Focus:
 - Recipes that are quick, healthy, and family-friendly.
 - Tips on meal planning and ingredient selection to support wellness.

ButcherBox

- Why: ButcherBox offers high-quality, responsibly sourced meats delivered directly to consumers, catering to cooks who value premium ingredients. The Meater thermometer would complement their product by helping ensure perfect results with these high-quality cuts.
- How: Offer Meater as an add-on with meat subscriptions, or provide a special discount on the thermometer for ButcherBox subscribers.

Example

Kathryn Budig

- Platform: Instagram and YouTube
- Follower Range: ~200,000 on Instagram
- Content: Focuses on holistic wellness, yoga, and simple, nutritious recipes. Her approachable content combines health with flavor, appealing to home chefs looking for easy, healthy meals.

Time Conscious Professionals

Time Conscious Professionals

Who Are They?

Parents with professional urban jobs, and younger children at home. They care about meal quality, but don't have a lot of time to be in the kitchen for hours.

The mom is the primary shopper for the household, and primary cook.

Desire: Product Features & Price

What's the Issue?

Want high quality meals, without having to hover over what they're cooking. Open to trying new recipes, and want to provide “new family favorite” meals.

Meater's Impact?

Meater delivers on time savings, and high quality every dish. Master Classes and recipe inspiration help making new “family favorites” simple, and mix up the weekly recipe lineup.

Spend less time cooking, more time creating.

83.8M US Families with children under 18, 67% have both parents working.

Partnerships & Influencers

Amazon

- Why: As a preferred shopping platform for budget-conscious individuals, Amazon's convenience and frequent deals resonate well with this persona. A collaboration here could leverage Amazon's "Frequently Bought Together" feature, pairing the Meater with budget-friendly kitchen items.
- How: Offer bundle deals on Amazon with other affordable cooking tools or discounted Meater units during Amazon's Prime Days or special sales.

Influencers

- Industry: Budget Cooking, Easy Meals, and Kitchen Hacks
- Platforms: TikTok and YouTube are the dominant platforms, with Instagram also commonly used.
- Follower Range: young, mid-tier trendy influencers, ranging from 200,000 to 2,000,000 followers.
- Content Focus:
 - Quick, budget-friendly recipes and cooking hacks.
 - Kitchen gadget reviews for affordability and convenience.
 - Informal, relatable content that engages users with simple cooking tips

TikTok Shop Partnerships (e.g., with influencers who sell kitchen gadgets)

- Why: TikTok's shopping platform offers easy, interactive purchase opportunities, especially for younger users. TikTok influencers often use live demos and short videos to showcase how simple, affordable kitchen tools enhance cooking. This aligns with the Budget-Conscious Hobbyist's preference for influencer-driven content.
- How: Partner with TikTok influencers to demo the Meater in quick recipe videos, highlighting its ease of use and convenience for affordable, quality cooking at home.

Example

Josh Elkin

- Platform: TikTok and Instagram
- Follower Range: 2,000,000 on TikTok
- Content: Josh creates fun, affordable recipes with a humorous approach, ideal for young, budget-conscious audiences. His content includes easy, accessible recipes and cooking hacks.

Memorable
Moments

Memorable Moments

Who Are They?

Focus on people with no children living at home. This demographic ranges from urban to suburban and rural living. Hosting memorable moments can range from family, to friends. Gift giving opportunities across age ranges and personas.

Desire: Price & Product Features

What's the Issue?

Want high quality meals, without having to hover over what they're cooking. Food brings people together, but cooking cuts into connection time. Open to trying new recipes, and want to provide "new family favorite" meals.

Meater's Impact?

Meater delivers on time savings, and high quality every dish. Having a range of options for probes, and different meats in the app takes the internet searching hassle away. This is a perfect gift giving.

Show your love through perfect meals.

Partnerships & Influencers

Costco

- Why: Known for bulk discounts and value pricing, Costco appeals to savvy shoppers looking for high-quality items at lower prices. A partnership could help position the Meater as an affordable yet professional-quality tool within Costco's kitchenware section.
- How: Offer the Meater at a discounted rate or as part of a kitchenware bundle at Costco. This could be especially effective as a seasonal promotion or holiday bundle to drive purchases among members who appreciate quality and value.

Influencers

- Industry: Gourmet and Specialty Cooking, High-Quality Kitchen Tools
- Platforms: YouTube and Instagram are the primary platforms, with Facebook also popular for community engagement.
- Follower Range: Mid to high-tier influencers, generally between 100,000 - 1 million followers.
- Content Focus:
 - Advanced recipes and unique cooking techniques
 - Product reviews for high-quality kitchen gadgets and specialty cookware.
 - Content aimed at enriching the cooking experience and culinary skills.

Blue Apron

- Why: Blue Apron's meal kits target cooking enthusiasts interested in quality ingredients and culinary skills without committing to expensive tools. The Meater could enhance the cooking experience by helping customers achieve precision when preparing meats.
- How: Offer the Meater as an add-on or upsell within Blue Apron's meal kit subscriptions, potentially at a discount for members. Blue Apron could also create a "perfectly cooked meat" bundle that features the Meater thermometer.

Example

ChefSteps (Grant Crilly)

- Platform: YouTube and Instagram
- Follower Range: 1.23 million on YouTube
- Content: ChefSteps creates in-depth tutorials on gourmet techniques, often featuring high-quality cooking gadgets. Their audience includes skilled home cooks interested in specialty methods like sous vide.

Competitive Dynamics

Competitor Bundling - Product Types

Product Bundles

Indoor Competitors - Focuses on the entire cooking experience and bundling products where the Meat Thermometer is an accessory purchase.

Outdoor Competitors - Similar to current Meater bundling strategy. Compliments to the outdoor cooking accessory

Focusing on Online Presence - Target ads, strategic influencers on social media

Cross-Competition Highlights

Consumer Preferences Across Competition:

Range & Connectivity

A complaint among multiple brands. Localized to outdoor cooking or disconnections of probe.

User Experience in App

Want a User Experience that is easy to navigate

Product EcoSystem

Create sticky customers - Brand loyalty very high in indoor cooking market

Customer Service

When issues happen - customers want reliable support

Key Recommendations

Brand & Influencer - strategic marketing and partnering to the segments to help influence in store decision

Sales/Marketing Channel - Survey shows (no matter how we segment) people want to buy from a big box store and you're not there. How to reach your customer - you have to expose your brand to these people before they get into the store and see 8 options. START target ads to these segments.
